Dear Members and Friends,

Join SBMA on this exploration of the ancient empires of Italy, Sicily and Malta, areas that have possessed an almost mythical appeal since Homer and Virgil extolled their virtues. Cruise among historic islands aboard the state-of-the-art, five-star LE LYRIAL, launched in 2015 and exclusively chartered for this journey for SBMA and like-minded organizations. Featuring only 122 Suites and Staterooms, this elegant small ship is able to call on ports inaccessible to larger vessels.

This outstanding itinerary cruises from Italy to Malta, along two of Europe's most dramatic coastlines. Fly to Rome (an optional Rome pre-tour extension is offered) and embark the ship. Cruise to Sorrento on the Amalfi Coast and over two days, explore the superbly excavated site of Pompeii, enjoy the quintessential colorful seaside village of Positano and the legendary island of Capri. The next three days are spent cruising around Sicily, visiting its most important sites. The cruise ends with a full day in Malta, where St. Paul the Apostle was shipwrecked and the Order of the Knights of St. John, Caravaggio, Sir Walter Scott, and Queen Elizabeth II once called home. Discover the lavishly ornamented interior of St. John's Co-Cathedral and see Caravaggio's only signed work, the dramatic Beheading of John the Baptist. A Malta extension is offered for those who wish to see more of this island nation.

SBMA travelers will be joined by members of the National Trust for Historic Preservation and alumni of UC Berkeley, Dartmouth College, Brown University, and other universities. Experts from some of these institutions in the areas of Classics, Political Science, and Art History will give in-depth lectures on board the ship to further illuminate the destinations you will visit—once coveted territories of the world's most powerful empires that have both retained and transformed their historically rich cultures and traditions down through the centuries.

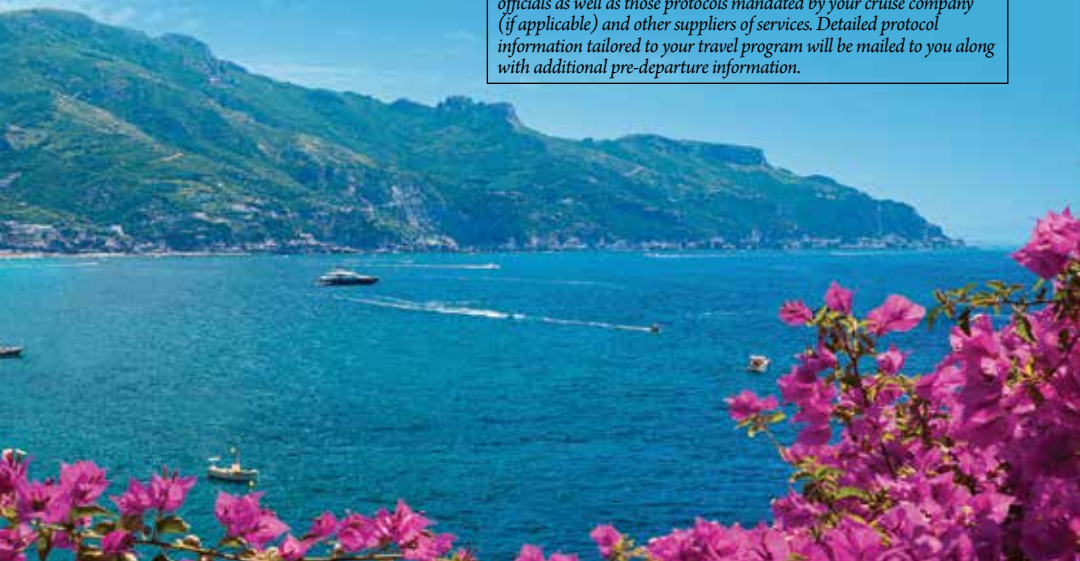

Due to the ever-changing nature of the pandemic, protocols will be adjusted to fit the current health and safety guidelines at the time of travel and to ensure a safe passage for participants. This cruise provides a captivating and unforgettable experience to mark a return to travel. Reserve now while space is still available!

Sincerely,

Arrive in the former seat of the Roman Empire, UNESCO World Heritage-designated Rome, today the historic heart of Italy. From the iconic Colosseum and the Vatican to the Spanish Steps and the Catacombs, Ancient Rome continues to amaze modern visitors. Embark the Five-Star LE LYRIAL in Civitavecchia.

Sorrento for Pompeii

Saturday, May 14

Quaint Sorrento is an outpost of the ancient Roman Republic and the scenic gateway to Mt. Vesuvius and Pompeii. This seaside town of rose-flushed buildings was built into picturesque cliffs high above the Tyrrhenian Sea and, as the world's limoncello capital, is abundant with fragrant lemon and orange groves.

Continue to the legendary Pompeii, which was engulfed by the tephra of Mt. Vesuvius in A.D. 79, rendering the city frozen in time. Excavated 17 centuries after petrification, the incredible UNESCO World Heritage-designated ruins intimately reveal Roman daily rituals during Emperor Titus's reign. On the walking tour, see the wealthy Vetti family estate, the extraordinary amphitheater—the earliest surviving stone amphitheater of the Roman world—and the Temple of Jupiter.

Enjoy the Captain's Welcome Reception on board the ship this evening.

Sorrento for Amalfi Coast and

Positano/Isle of Capri

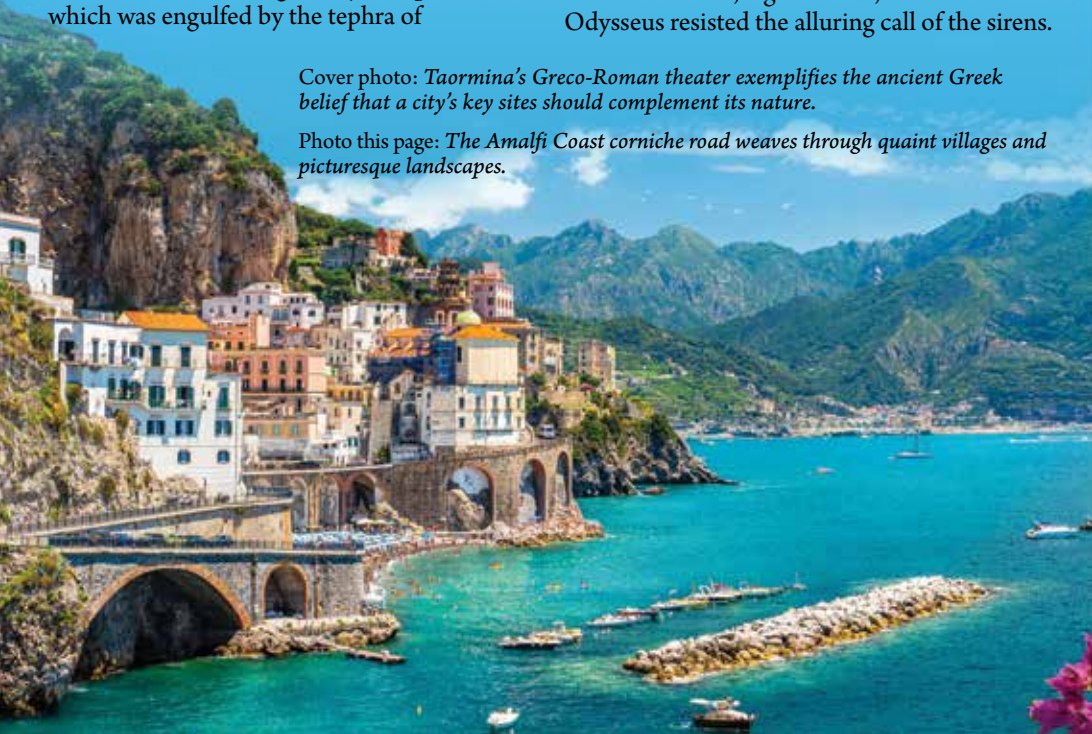

Sunday, May 15

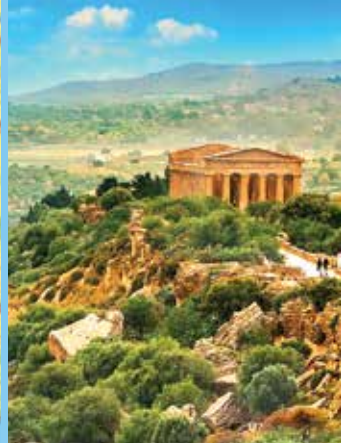

Admire the natural splendor of the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Amalfi Coast, and experience the allure of the Mediterranean seaside with secluded villages, opulent villas and sun-drenched beaches. Explore the winding, delightful streets of the cliffside, coastal village of Positano on your own.

Enjoy a walking tour of captivating Capri, the island where, legend has it, Homer's Odysseus resisted the alluring call of the sirens.

Cruise past Stromboli/Naxos for Taormina, Sicily Monday, May 16

Be on deck this morning to view the Aeolian Island of Stromboli, a UNESCO World Heritage site and the "Lighthouse of the Mediterranean"—a volcano mildly active for over two millennia.

From charming Taormina, the medieval center of Sicilian culture and commerce, enjoy stunning panoramas of the Calabria coastline and snowcapped Mt. Etna, Europe's highest volcano and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Tour the remarkably preserved third-century B.C. Greco-Roman theater, the most dramatically sited Greek theater in the world and still in use today.

See the 14th-century Gothic-Catalan-style Corvaia Palace and the Roman Odeon, the "small theater" built in 21 B.C., and see the medieval Baroque portal of the Cathedral of St. Nicola. Stroll along Taormina's distinctively Mediterranean pedestrian thoroughfare, Corso Umberto.

The three sea stacks of Faraglioni are Capri's most dramatic sight and can be seen from the Augustus Gardens.

for the crowds; the Altar of Hieron II; the limestone Ear of Dionysius cave; and the Archaeological Museum.

Wander the hallowed island of Ortygia, Syracuse's maritime heart, where the most ancient Doric temple in Sicily, the sixth-century B.C. Temple of Apollo, stands in the remains of Piazza Pancali. The city's Baroque cathedral incorporates the ruins of a fifth-century B.C. temple dedicated to the goddess Athena, where you can admire the unique baptismal font, an ancient Greek marble krater vase dating from the 13th century. The landmark Piazza Archimede showcases the dazzling, Baroque-style Fountain of Diana, adorned with rearing horses, charging tritons and maternal sea nymphs.

Porto Empedocle for Agrigento Wednesday, May 18

The classical Greek world is reanimated in Agrigento's UNESCO World Heritage-designated Valley of the Temples. Here, the landscape features eight Doric shrines dating from the fifth century B.C., including the Temple of Hera, with its graceful northern colonnade, and the Temple of Concordia, which has survived almost entirely intact since its construction in 430 B.C.

See the temples honoring Zeus and Heracles and the Sanctuary of the Chthonic Deities—mythological lords of Earth and the underworld. Visit the Agrigento Archaeological Museum, which preserves Sicily's finest collection of Greek, Etruscan, Phoenician, Carthaginian and Roman artifacts.

Valletta, Malta Thursday, May 19

Cruise to the picturesque capital city of Valletta. Founded in 1566 by the Knights of St. John, this UNESCO World Heritage site is one of the world's earliest planned cities. Malta has held a strong connection to Italy and Sicily since A.D. 60, when a shipwrecked St. Paul brought Christianity to the tiny archipelago. Today, this 2018 European Capital of Culture showcases incredible high Baroque, Neoclassical and modern architecture.

Visit St. John's Co-Cathedral, exemplifying Baroque architecture with two large bell towers looming over the cathedral. Tour the 16th-century Barrakka Gardens and enjoy vistas of Valletta's Grand Harbor. Tour the interiors of the Grandmaster's Palace, the former residence of the Order of the Knights of St. John and the seat of Malta's parliament until 2015. A member of the de Piro family of Maltese nobility leads your private tour through the 430-year-old Casa Rocca Piccola, the family's ancestral home and a display of historical Maltese aristocracy.

Attend the Captain's Farewell Reception on board the ship this evening.
