JAPAN BY SEA

LAND OF THE RISING SUN

ABOARD THE
HERITAGE ADVENTURER

MAY 14-25, 2024

DEAR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS,

Join fellow museum members for two full days of sightseeing in Tokyo followed by an eight-night cruise through the Sea of Japan and the Inland Sea aboard the 140-passenger Heritage Adventurer. Venture beyond the major cosmopolitan cities to a fascinating variety of tranquil historic towns, artistic centers, and remote islands.

Discover a Japan that few visitors see—from the bustle of Tokyo to the tranquil historic quarters of Kanazawa and the island worlds of Miyajima and Sado. Excursions highlight both cutting-edge modern architecture in Tokyo and the ancient traditions of Japan, with visits to sacred temples and shrines, celebrated gardens and castles, and private cultural performances. During special events, attend a performance of Kodo drummers on Sado Island, and partake in a traditional tea ceremony in Kanazawa.

Engage with expert study leaders throughout this unique educational program and gain a better appreciation of Japan's historical and cultural significance through onboard lectures and informal discussions. In addition, four local Japanese English-speaking guides will accompany the group throughout the journey, to lead tours and answer questions from travelers.

An optional pre-trip extension to Kamakura and the hot springs resort of Hakone, and an optional post-trip extension to Kyoto and the ancient city of Nara, are also available.

This program is co-sponsored with other organizations including Commonwealth Club of California, Harvard Alumni Travels, Tufts Travel-Learn, and Yale Alumni Academy. With only 74 cabins, I urge you to reserve space today.

With kind regards,

Lisa Benshea
