VIRTUAL YOUNG AT ART

In this virtual form of our celebrated Young at Art program, K-2 students explore the elements of art: line, color, shape/form, texture, space, and value. The 45-minute lesson with an SBMA Teaching Artist includes an interactive PowerPoint presentation and hands-on art activity. There is also an optional pre-visit video available to further orient students to the elements of art.

SBMA AT HOME

SBMA At Home is a new webpage to find resources for at-home projects. It includes printable coloring pages and art-inspired activity sheets, as well as links to virtual exhibition tours and art-at-home instructional videos. For added fun, it also includes a selection of Zoom backgrounds featuring works in SBMA's permanent collection. Updated monthly.

ART SPARKS!

These step-by-step art breaks are designed to be quick and easy-to-do projects created with everyday materials found at home. Inspired by artworks in SBMA's permanent collection, Art Sparks encourage breaks away from the screen to draw, wonder, collage, and create! Discover art projects ranging from watercolor and drawing, to collage and fabric painting.

MINDFUL LOOKING MEDITATIONS

Mindful Looking, a new series of artful meditations created by SBMA's Education Department in collaboration with Vivian Valentin, offers short reflections on works of art from SBMA's permanent collection. These art-based mindfulness exercises allow students to pause, reflect, and focus on breath, while cultivating curiosity, awareness, and acceptance.
